CHAPTER 289

HOUSE BILL 2689

AN ACT

ESTABLISHING THE RESERVATION TELECOMMUNICATIONS LEGISLATIVE STUDY COMMITTEE.

(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

2 Section 1. Reservation telecommunications legislative study
3 committee

4 A. The reservation telecommunications legislative study committee is
5 established consisting of the following members:

6 1. Three members of the house of representatives who are appointed by 7 the speaker of the house of representatives, not more than two of whom are 8 members of the same political party. The speaker shall designate one of 9 these members to serve as cochairperson of the study committee.

10 2. Three members of the senate who are appointed by the president of 11 the senate, not more than two of whom are members of the same political 12 party. The president shall designate one of these members to serve as 13 cochairperson of the study committee.

14 B. The study committee shall:

15 1. Identify methods to track tribal contributions to the state
16 transaction privilege tax.

17 2. Identify an appropriate distribution formula that is modeled after 18 the current city and state shared revenue formulas.

19 3. Identify an appropriate transaction privilege tax distribution
20 process for tribal governments.

21 4. Recommend tribal telecommunications legislation that incorporates
22 the state transaction privilege tax.

23 5. Submit a report of its findings and recommendations to the speaker
24 of the house of representatives and the president of the senate on or before
25 June 30, 2007. The committee shall provide a copy of the report to the 26 secretary of state and the director of the Arizona state library, archives
27 and public records.

28 C. The study committee shall conduct its first meeting in conjunction 29 with the 2006 Arizona Indian Town Hall. The study committee may conduct 30 additional meetings as determined by the cochairpersons, except that the 31 study committee may only conduct a total of five meetings.

32 Sec. 2. Delayed repeal

33 This act is repealed from and after December 31, 2007.

34 Sec. 3. Emergency

35 This act is an emergency measure that is necessary to preserve the 36 public peace, health or safety and is operative immediately as provided by 37 law.
